

4th Nordic Bariatric Meeting

23-24th of March 2017, Reykjavik, Iceland

The upcoming two-day program includes:

- Status of bariatric surgery in the Nordic and Baltic countries
- Discussion on preferred bariatric procedure for patients with BMI less than 35
- Operative technique and results of Mini Gastric bypass, invited speaker Jean-Marc Chevallier
- Status report from the Best study
- Long-term effects of the Lönroth gastric bypass in Nordic countries
- Treatment of super-obesity – choice of primary procedure
- What do we do with patients with weight regain?
- Short presentations of important studies and update on new bariatric techniques

We all wish you very welcome,
Hjörtur Gislason and the organizing committee;
Jon Kristinsson, Norway, Lars Naver, Denmark, Björn Geir Leifsson, Iceland,
Paulina Salminen, Finland, Magnus Sundbom, Sweden, and Almantas Malekcas,
Baltic countries

Congress fee, including dinner and two-night accommodation at the Foss Hotel:
500 €

Please save-the-date, detailed program and registration will follow asap.