

4th Nordic Bariatric Meeting

23-24 of March 2017, Reykjavik, Iceland

The upcoming two-day program includes:

- Poster sessions
- Status of bariatric surgery in the Nordic and Baltic countries
- Discussion on preferred bariatric procedure for patients with BMI less than 35.
- Operative technique and results of Mini Gastric bypass, invited speaker Jean-Marc Chevallier
- Status report from the Best study
- Long-term effects of the Lönroth gastric bypass in Nordic countries
- Treatment of super-obesity choice of primary procedure
- What do we do with patients with weight regain?
- Short presentations of important studies and update on new bariatric techniques

Congress fee, including lunch, dinner and two-night accommodation at the Foss Hotel is Euro 600.

Please save the date - detailed program and registration will follow.
We all wish you very welcome!

Hjörtur Gislason and the organizing committee;

Jon Kristinsson, Norway, Lars Naver, Denmark, Björn Geir Leifsson, Iceland, Paulina Salminen, Finland, Magnus Sundbom, Sweden, and Almantas Maleckas, Baltic countries